

Scarlett R. Larson

3503 Grand Avenue South
Minneapolis, Minnesota 55408
scarlett@scarlettlarson.com

- SUMMARY:
- Design and fabrication experience
 - Knowledge of a variety of design platforms
 - Bachelor of Fine Arts- Sculpture
 - Volunteer within the community
- SKILLS:
- Conceptual design through sketched illustrations, Adobe Photoshop CS, Illustrator and FormZ (CAD)
 - Experience with rapid prototyping
 - Knowledge of an assortment of materials
 - Various fabrication techniques using wood, metal, plastic, rubber, foam, clay, wax, resin and fiberglass
 - Experience with Mac OS X, MS Office, Windows XP and the Internet
- EDUCATION: Bachelor of Fine Arts in Sculpture, December 2007
Minneapolis College of Art and Design, Minneapolis, Minnesota
- EXPERIENCE: Childcare Provider, December 2007 to Present
Minneapolis, Minnesota
- Support social and creative development of two children
 - Protect children from harm and maintain safe environments
 - Communicate developmental cares and concerns with parents
- Product Designer, April 2006 to January 2007
Brent's Signs, St. Louis Park, Minnesota
- Market, trend and material research of aesthetically pleasing cat trees
 - Conceptual and structural drawings of product
 - Product Fabrication
- Sculpture Internship, May 2006 to September 2006
Atomic Props and Effects Ltd., St. Paul, Minnesota
- Fabricate props, billboards and 3D outdoor advertisements using foam, epoxies, wood, metal, and fabric
 - Activities included: welding, gluing, painting, woodworking, upholstery, epoxy applications, sanding/grinding, carving, finishing
- ACTIVITIES:
- Representative of Fine Arts, Student Affairs Council, Minneapolis College of Art and Design, 2006-2007
 - Exhibiting Artist, Multiple Venues, Twin Cities Metro Area, 2005- Present
 - Volunteer, Minneapolis Public Schools 2007- Present
 - Volunteer, Minneapolis Public Radio 2005- 2007